Alexander Hurh, General Secretary
347 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

Dear Fellow Students:

Service is an essential expression of Christian faith, and never was there greater need of this expression among us than at the present time.

With "Service" as its motto, the Korean Students' Christian Association in the U. S. A. endeavors to serve the needs of our students in America, but the effectiveness of its service will be measured by the degree of cooperation and support you give to it. I believe in the old saying that everyone can do something and there is something for everyone to do. Let us help ourselves by aiding in advancing the important functions and programs which are entrusted to the Korean Students' Christian Association.

Cordially yours,

ALEXANDER HURH,
General Secretary.

OBJECTIVES OF THE KOREAN STUDENTS' CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION IN THE U. S. A.

1. To serve the needs of Korean students in America.
2. To afford the individual Korean students an opportunity for contacts with American people, especially with American students, thus cultivating international friendship and understanding.
3. To promote the ideal of service as an obligation of Christian fellowship.
